

CIVIL CEREMONY SCRIPT #1

Officiant:

We are gathered here today to witness and to celebrate the marriage of _____ and _____ to be with them as they pledge themselves to each other. Their's is a partnership freely chosen and founded on love, friendship, trust and respect. It is a partnership that encourages not only self-expression, understanding and the development of wisdom through the sharing of knowledge, but also an enthusiasm for life and living. It must be done with respect, consideration and a deep and gentle caring for one another.

By your presence, you celebrate with them the love they have discovered in each other and you support their decision to commit themselves to one another for the rest of their lives.

Officiant to Person 1:

You have chosen _____ to be your life partner. Will you love and respect him/her? Will you be honest with him/her always? Will you stand by him/her through whatever may come?

Person 1: I will.

Officiant to Person 2:

You have chosen _____ to be your life partner. Will you love and respect him/her? Will you be honest with him/her always? Will you stand by him/her through whatever may come?

Person 2: I will.

Officiant:

And do you both promise to make the necessary adjustments in your personal lives so that you may live in a harmonious relationship, together?

Person 1 & Person 2: We do.

Officiant to Person 1:

Please repeat after me:

"I, _____, do solemnly declare / that I do not know / of any lawful impediment / why I may not be joined in matrimony / to _____."

Officiant to Person 2:

Please repeat after me:

"I, _____, do solemnly declare / that I do not know / of any lawful impediment / why I may not be joined in matrimony / to _____"

_____ and _____, now we come to your vows. May I remind you that saying your vows here today is one thing but nothing is more challenging than living them day by day.

Officiant to Person 1:

Please repeat after me:

I call upon these persons here present to witness that I, _____, do take you, _____, to be my lawful wedded wife...(personal vows)

Officiant to Person 2:

Please repeat after me:

I call upon these persons here present to witness that I, _____, do take you, _____, to be my lawful wedded husband...(personal vows)

The Giving and Receiving of Rings:

Officiant: May I have the rings, please.

Officiant to Person 1:

Please repeat after me:

“_____, I give you this ring / that you may wear it / as a symbol of the vows we have made this day. / I pledge you my love and respect, / my laughter and tears / and with all that I am, I honour you.”

Officiant to Person 2:

Please repeat after me:

“_____, I give you this ring / that you may wear it / as a symbol of the vows we have made this day. / I pledge you my love and respect, / my laughter and tears / and with all that I am, I honour you.”

Officiant:

Now may those who wear these rings live in love all of their lives. Now may the love which has brought you together continue to grow and enrich your lives. May you continue to meet with courage any problems that may arise to challenge you. May your relationship always be one of love and trust. May the happiness that you share today be with you always and may everything that you have said and done here today become a living truth in your lives.

_____ and _____, we have heard your promise to share your lives in marriage. We recognize and respect the covenant you have made here this day before each one of us as witnesses. Therefore, in the honesty and sincerity of what you have said and done here today I, _____, by virtue of the powers vested in me by the Marriage Act, do hereby pronounce you _____ and _____ to be married and partners in life for life. You may now seal your vows with a kiss.
